

NOTICE OF
SOLICITATION FOR BOARD MEMBERSHIP TO
CUYAHOGA COUNTY LAND REUTILIZATION CORPORATION
December 22, 2011

The Cuyahoga County Land Reutilization Corporation (“CCLRC”) has two openings for Board seats.

Responsibility: The CCLRC seeks to revitalize neighborhoods, promote housing, economic growth and create job and workforce development opportunities. It addresses the conversion of land to productive new uses and is committed to healthy and sustainable property re-development in Cuyahoga County. The CCLRC is empowered to assist local governments in effective use and re-use of vacant property. A nine-member Board of Directors is charged with the task of governing the operations of the CCLRC.

Qualifications: While there are no specific qualifications for the appointed members of the CCLRC Board, applicants interested in considering Board membership are encouraged to carefully review the CCLRC website for the CCLRC’s mission statement, purpose and operational activities. The CCLRC seeks applicants committed to community and economic development and experience in property, real estate or land use redevelopment of our County. Terms are for two years ending in May of even number years. Board members are not compensated for service but may be reimbursed for expenses. Interested applicants should submit their names, addresses and telephone numbers along with their resumes to:

Cuyahoga County Land Reutilization Corporation
Attention: Jacqui Knettel
323 W. Lakeside Avenue--Suite 160
Cleveland, Ohio 44113

Appointing Authority: Cuyahoga County Executive, Edward FitzGerald
Cuyahoga County Treasurer, Richard Sensenbrenner
Cuyahoga County Councilman, Dan Brady

Current Board Members: Anthony Brancatelli, Chairman
Dan Brady, Vice-Chairman
Georgine Welo
Cyril Kleem
Edward FitzGerald
Chris Warren
Richard Sensenbrenner

The CCLRC abides by a Code of Ethics and Conflict of Interest policy articulated on its website. See: www.cuyahogalandbank.org. The CCLRC is an Equal Opportunity Employer.